

One Point of Contact, Multiple Points of Expertise.

We offer more than just review.

Consider our team an extension of yours. We offer a wide range of services to support your in-house legal and compliance teams. When things come up that you don't have the time or resources to handle, you can rely on Blackletter. We have the expertise and the attorneys ready to go. And just like everything we do, our efficient processes translate into significant cost savings.

3rd Party Subpoena Response

From collection through review, handled quickly and efficiently.

M&A Due Diligence

We have the tools and talent to identify legal obligation and risk.

Contract Database Reconciliation and Auditing

Let us organize your data or database to make it useful.

Search Term Optimization

We have saved our clients millions by creating and testing their search terms prior to review.

Contract Review & Amendment

Use our attorneys to review and amend your existing contracts.

Privilege Logs

We automate the process to increase accuracy and efficiency.

Internal Investigations

Create timelines, identify key players, and spot potential issues prior to engaging outside counsel.

Deposition Prep Assistance

Following review, we know your documents. Let us point you to the key exhibits you should be prepared to present or defend.