

Meet unique business demands with flexible legal talent.

By engaging legal talent on a contract basis, you can add specialized expertise to compliment your existing team - on demand.

A Spectrum of Flexible Legal Talent

Through our decades of experience in legal recruitment, we have developed a bench of thousands of qualified legal professionals in key practices areas. From attorneys to paralegals and legal support professionals, our talent solutions team is trained to identify top talent tailored to our client's needs.

Challenges Met

Our clients include both law firms and corporate legal departments, many of whom are facing a litany of challenges. From budget constraints to hiring restrictions, flexible legal talent is a popular solution in a rapidly changing business environment. Remove the pressure of overburdening your existing team by quickly accessing the expertise you need, right when you need it.

Available for Hire

With today's economic uncertainty, many clients are faced with the challenge of deciding whether or not to add permanent headcount to their team. By exploring a solution traditionally known as "temporary-to-hire" employment, clients may scale-up their team with flexible talent on an interim basis, reserving the option to hire this talent permanently at a later date.
